

MORNING PRAYER

LAUDATO SI, 11

SUNDAY

Lord, inspire us to approach nature with a spirit of awe and wonder,
- drawing others into the chorus of Your praise.

MONDAY

LS, 85; 238

Father, the book of creation is a continuing revelation of Your divine mystery,
- may its beauty move us to contemplate the truly Beautiful.

LS, 12; 236

TUESDAY

Christ our Brother, Your incarnation affirmed the goodness of the material world,
- may we find in created things tangible manifestations of grace.

WEDNESDAY

LS, 92; 221; 246

Holy Spirit, Who accompanies creation as it groans in travail,
- inspire us to live in fraternity with all creatures.

LS, 64; 67

THURSDAY

Members of Christ's mystical body, we are summoned to be coworkers with God,
- may our fraternal life and ministry bear abundant fruit.

FRIDAY

LS, 10; 97; 222

Let us live intentional lives of simplicity and minority,
- prayerfully attentive to the way we relate to the world.

LS, 241

SATURDAY

Mary, Queen of all creation, in your glorified body part of creation has reached the fulness of its beauty,
- look with maternal affection on our wounded world.

SUNDAY I

LAUDATO SI, 116; 237

As we celebrate the first day of the new creation,

- let us renew our commitment to responsibly care for our common home.

LS, 77; 225

SUNDAY II

Almighty God, You act to bring order to the chaos of the world,

- teach us to cultivate the inner peace of a balanced lifestyle.

LS, 50; 158; 191

Just Father, You commanded Your chosen people to ensure the common good,

- discipline us to make sustainable use of our shared resources.

LS, 10; 52; 246

TUESDAY

Lord Jesus, You taught Your disciples to exercise care for the vulnerable,

- stir our hearts to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth.

WEDNESDAY

LS, 10; 216

Joyful Spirit, ignite in us a passionate concern for the protection of our world,

- and mold us into compelling witnesses to the joy of the Gospel.

LS, 22; 67

THURSDAY

Baptized in the Church, may we ever live as pilgrims in this world,

- and as strangers to the throwaway culture of indifference.

FRIDAY

LS, 66; 217

May we build fraternities that strive to exist in harmony with all creatures,

- healing the rupture caused by sin.
