Lord, inspire us to approach nature with a spirit of awe and wonder, - drawing others into the chorus of Your praise.

Father, the book of creation is a continuing revelation of Your divine mystery, - may its beauty move us to contemplate the truly Beautiful.

Christ our Brother, Your incarnation affirmed the goodness of the material world, - may we find in created things tangible manifestations of grace.

Holy Spirit, Who accompanies creation as it groans in travail, - inspire us to live in fraternity with all creatures.

Members of Christ’s mystical body, we are summoned to be coworkers with God, - may our fraternal life and ministry bear abundant fruit.

Let us live intentional lives of simplicity and minority, - prayerfully attentive to the way we relate to the world.

Mary, Queen of all creation, in your glorified body part of creation has reached the fulness of its beauty, - look with maternal affection on our wounded world.
As we celebrate the first day of the new creation,
- let us renew our commitment to responsibly care for our common home.

Almighty God, You act to bring order to the chaos of the world,
- teach us to cultivate the inner peace of a balanced lifestyle.

Just Father, You commanded Your chosen people to ensure the common good,
- discipline us to make sustainable use of our shared resources.

Lord Jesus, You taught Your disciples to exercise care for the vulnerable,
- stir our hearts to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth.

Joyful Spirit, ignite in us a passionate concern for the protection of our world,
- and mold us into compelling witnesses to the joy of the Gospel.

Baptized in the Church, may we ever live as pilgrims in this world,
- and as strangers to the throwaway culture of indifference.

May we build fraternities that strive to exist in harmony with all creatures,
- healing the rupture caused by sin.
